NEW PRODUCTS: Special Prize Block and Diamond -Random Money & Prize Giver in One!
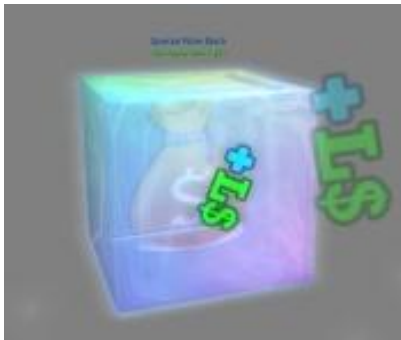

Category : Announcements
Published by Alicia Stella on Aug-19-2014

These new products are like a Random Money and Prize Giver that's also a Game of Chance!

They award money and prizes to random guests to your events at a timer interval you set. Adds excitement to your gathering and makes people stick around to see who wins what next! Includes a Sploder style prize where multiple avatars win money.

Can be set for Group Members Only to win or allow anyone. Set a range, parcel, or entire sim that is allowed to win. Up to 100 avatars can participate!

The prizes that can be won flash by and the chosen avatar Touches to stop on one by random. Features different sound effects and particles when prizes are awarded.

Avatars can win one of the following:
► Random amount of money
► Random amounts of money to multiple avatars (Sploder style)
► Random prize object (up to 100 objects)
► Random Line from a Notecard (includes sample notes)
► An entry into your raffle (ASD Raffle required, sold separately)
► Zonk Prize (no prize)

Some prize features are optional. This item cannot be paid to enter so it's completely legal in Second Life! Check out one of the links below to learn more. It's available in a Block and a Diamond object design.
